Hague, July 17.

"THE Emperour has caused his "Minister to declare to the States, "that he desires the Affair of "the Barrier may be settled with "him assoon as possible, and that "for this end he has ordered Count Coningseck to "repair about the 20th of this Month to Francfort, "or else to Brussels, whither the States may send "their Deputies to enter with him into Negocia- "tion without Loss of Time. London, July 12.

Yesterday arrived the Mail due from France.

From the Paris Letter, dated July 18.

Paris, July 18. 'Tis advised from Rome the 23d of last Month, that the 19th the Thunder had fallen in divers Places, as well in the City as in the adjacent Country: Particularly, on the Palace of the Abbey of Lubiaco; in the Chamber of Cardinal Barberini, who was hurt in the Face with a Piece of Stone, had part of his Cloaths burnt, and had like to have died of the Fright. It fell at the same time at Albani, in the House of Cardinal Aquaviva who was then at Table, and at Rome in the House of Cardinal Colonna, but without hurting any Body. Letters from Perpignan of the 4th of this Month relate, that the Marshal Duke of Berwick arrived there the 30th of June, and set out from thence the next Morning with the Earl of Tinmouth and my Lord Lucan, his two Sons, two French Lieutenant Generals, a Major-General, and several Colloncls and Brigadiers who had waited for him. The 2d and 3d the Duke de Mortemart, M. de Puy-Vauban, and some others, followed the said Marshal, who proposed to reach the Camp before Barcelona by the 5th or 6th; whence 'twas advised the 26th past, that the Barceloners persisted in their Obstinacy, being kept up in it by the Monks and Hermits, who feed them with Predictions, viz. that Angels will come to their Relief, and other like Whimsies. In the mean while 'tis known that their Leaders do not amuse themselves with such Visions, and Deserters affirm that they will not delay to surrender to the Marshal Duke of Berwick, the more readily because they are in great want of Provisions, not being able to receive any but very rarely by Barks which slip into the Port by Night, which Supplies are not sufficient for half the Inhabitants. They have formed a Company of Volunteers under the Name of Matadors or Assassines, who are perpetually roaming about the Town armed with Poniards and Pocket-Pistols, with Order to kill all whom they shall find murmuring against the Government. The Cathedral Church and almost all the others with the Convents are intirely ruined, and 14 Cordeliers were found dead under the Ruines of their Bed-Rooms. The Marshal de Villars does not set out for Baden till some Days in the Beginning of August.

Dublin, July 4. 'On the 3d Instant 26 Persons 'were arraigned at the Assizes held at Kilmanham, 'for inlisting themselves into the Service of the 'Pretender, of whom 8 were tryed, found guilty, 'and condemned, and to Morrow the Court will 'proceed to try the rest. Several of the Popish 'Merchants of this City are suspected to have 'been Abettors in these Practices of inlisting Sol- 'diers, by furnishing the Money which has been 'advanced for that purpose, and 'tis said that 'some of them, against whom Informations have 'been given, have withdrawn themselves.
